

Standard Photo Use License & Copyright Notice

ADM Photo & Video retains full copyright of all photographs we capture, unless an explicit and separate agreement is made in writing. Should a client wish to obtain full copyright ownership, additional charges will apply and must be agreed upon in advance.

Upon receipt of full payment, clients are granted a full-use license. This license allows the client to use the photographs for personal and business marketing purposes, including but not limited to print, web, and social media. This license does not include the right to sell, transfer, or re-license the photographs to any third party, including other businesses or service providers. Clients may not provide the photographs to another company or entity that they are not directly employed by or representing in an official capacity.

Photographs may be edited or altered by the client. However, if edits are made, the client must not tag or credit ADM Photo & Video in any publicly posted or published content.

By downloading the photographs delivered by ADM Photo & Video, the client agrees to the terms of this license in full, without modification or amendment. Unauthorized use is strictly prohibited and may result in legal action.

ADM Photo & Video

Email: info@admphotoandvideo.com | Tel: (239) 362-3842

<https://fortmyersphotographystudio.com>

This release applies to all photography delivered by ADM Photo & Video unless otherwise agreed in writing.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Can I use the photos in my personal or business marketing?

A: Yes. You may use the photographs in your marketing, including print, online, and social media, as part of your business or personal promotion.

Q: Can I give the photos to my designer or marketing team?

A: Yes. You may share the images with your internal team or contractors for marketing your own services, as long as they are used solely for your benefit.

Q: Can I sell or license the photos to someone else?

A: No. You may not sell, re-license, or give the photographs to another business or individual for their own commercial use. You also may not provide the images to a company or organization that you are not directly employed by or officially representing.

Q: Can I edit the photos?

A: Yes. However, if you do, please do not tag or credit ADM Photo & Video on any altered versions of the images.

ADM Photo & Video

Email: info@admphotoandvideo.com | Tel: (239) 362-3842

<https://fortmyersphotographystudio.com>

This release applies to all photography delivered by ADM Photo & Video unless otherwise agreed in writing.